

WSC Activities Report 2010-2011

Annual Report

The period this report covers, 2010-2011, has been one of the worst for Sindhi people, the worst human disasters further marred by ineptness, corruption, mismanagement and apathy. The entire Sindhi nation suffered. The killings and abductions of Sindhi political activists and the designs to play with the history and geography of Sindh.

During these very difficult times World Sindhi Congress have continued to work to its capacity for the cause of Sindh and Sindhi people with the support of its team, its entire membership, its cooperating and collaborating organisations and many individuals.

I would provide a brief summary of our activities during the period of 2010-2011

1. WSC is proud to be the only Sindhi organisation that has consistently represented Sindhi people on the prestigious platform of the UN for the last 23 years to raise the case of marginalised Sindhi people. WSC has participated in all the Human Rights Council (UNHRC) sessions in Geneva during this year. A brief account of participation is as follows:
 - i. A delegation of WSC comprising of Dr Hidayat Bhutto and Dr Lakhu Luhana participated in the 16th session of UN Human Rights Council in Geneva. WSC delegation made statements at events organised by Interfaith International and RADDHO (Rencontre Africaine Pour La Defense des Droits de L'Homme)
 - ii. A delegation lead by Dr Lakhu Luhana participated in the 17th session of UN Human Rights Council in Geneva. Dr Luhana was a panellist in a briefing organised on 15 June by OCAPROCE International titled Human Rights in Security Zone.
 - iii. A delegation comprising of Dr Hidayat Bhutto and Dr Lakhu Luhana participated in the 18th session of UN Human Rights Council in Geneva held from 12-30 September 2011. Dr Luhana was a panellist in a briefing organised by UNPO (Unrepresented Nations and Peoples Organisation) on 15 Sep titled 'Human Rights in Pakistan'. Dr Bhutto spoke at a briefing on 19 Sep organised by ECOSOC accredited NGOs, RADDHO and OCAPROCE International. Dr Bhutto also had an opportunity for intervention on Item 5 'The Role of Languages and Culture in the Protection of Wellbeing and Identity of indigenous Peoples'.

During these briefings and interventions WSC delegates informed the Human Rights Council about the continued gross human rights violation of Sindhi people. During the attendance of these sessions the WSC delegates also met with numerous ECOSOC NGOs, human rights defenders from South Asia region and from other oppressed nations. In these meetings, the delegation had detailed discussions about the worsening situation of human rights of Sindhi people.

UNPO (Unrepresented Nations and Peoples Organisation)

1. Dr Rubina Greenwood from WSC has participated Unrepresented Nations and People Organisation (UNPO) in February 2011 in collaboration with World Sindhi Institute. Where, WSC and WSI jointly presented case of Sindh during UNPO 20th Anniversary. UNPO presents and lobby the right of self-determination of unrepresented nations at UN and EU level. Currently, Sindh sits at UNPO's presidency. WSC and WSI delegation undertook lobbying activities organised by UNPO European Parliament and discussed Flood situation in Sindh and inadequacy of Pakistani government provide aid and relief to flood victims. WSC and WSI jointly raised the issues of manipulation and exploitation of natural resource of Sindh.
2. Dr Lakhu Luhana was an invited specialist speaker at a seminar organised by UNPO in Brussels on 05 May 2011. He did a presentation about the environmental degradation including mega dam building in Gilgit Baltistan and its relevance to
